India's Mohammed Siraj celebrates the dismissal of England's Josh Tongue on day three of the second Test match at Edgbaston in Birmingham on Friday | PTI

SIRAJ'S 6-WICKET HAUL GIVES INDIA AN EDGE

Day 3 ended with a positive note for India as the visitors led by 244 runs at Edgbaston in Birmingham, England. Siraj picked up a six-wicket haul (6/70). The 31-year-old's spell is the first instance of a visiting pacer claiming six wickets at Edgbaston since 1993. England's Jamie Smith smashed 184 not out, while Brook hit 158 which added 303 to keep England out of trouble. India lost the wicket of Yashasvi Jaiswal for 28 and India ended the day at 64/1 | P17
